Legislative Leaders Sue Idaho Constitutional Officer

Boise, Idaho — House Speaker Scott Bedke and Pro Tempore Brent Hill in their official capacity are suing Julie Ellsworth in her official capacity as the Treasurer of the State of Idaho. This action comes on the heels of multiple failed attempts during this year's Legislative Session to appropriate millions of taxpayer dollars for the construction of new legislative offices and more staff.

Treasurer Ellsworth stated "I have always opposed this move and I am shocked at the continued wasteful use of taxpayer dollars to build new legislative offices that will be used for just three months of the year. I plan to vigorously defend the taxpayers of Idaho and combat this frivolous use of their dollars."

The Idaho State Treasurer is a creation of the Idaho constitution and has been in the same location in the Capitol for over a hundred years. The office is a working office that serves state agencies and the public on a daily basis. The Treasurer and her office have acted in good faith and tried to offer up alternatives that would accommodate the Legislature and the public including a proposal utilizing shared space.
